Madagascar (Enchantment Of The World, Second)

Synopsis

The world's fourth-largest island, Madagascar, lies off the southeastern coast of Africa. This island nation is home to many plant and animal species that are found nowhere else on Earth. It also has a long history of human settlement. As they tour its beautiful landscapes and busiest cities, readers will get a taste of life in modern Madagascar. They will also learn about the country's government, economy, history, and more.
