I am using this book for a small bible study I'm doing with friends. I have to say I really like it because the chapters are not too long where you feel like you can't get through it week to week me the questions really make you think. They aren't just easy questions you can find the answers in the chapter you just read but they make you delve a little deeper. Creates great discussion!

As always, N. T. Wright is scholarly and readable. He gets right to the point and provides nuggets of spiritual insight for daily life.
