Youth and family ministry worker and counselor David Lynn has worked with young people and their families for more than three decades. He is the creator of TalkSheets and author of numerous books, the creator of Building up Your Ministry, and he conducts several leadership training workshops. He lives with his family in Tucson, Arizona.

My teachers and kids love it in my youth ministry. Gives a unified experience across all my teachers and requires minimal preparation for them as well.

These are really nice. The illustrations on each page are rough and the students laugh at them. Anyways, the content is good - I'm really pleased. The phrasing of some questions is strange and there's been discussion over what the writer "really meant." BUT that's the whole point, to get students talking. We recently used the sheet regarding lies. It was eyeopening. For the price, you need to buy these now!

The Talksheets came quickly and were in great condition. I am always looking for topics to start my small groups. I have also found that many students are not familiar with the Bible. These are just little tidbits with a lot of meat.

I use this as a Sunday School resource with 10-15 students and it has been great. Not incredibly deep content, but well worth the time.

Great for our Sunday morning small group.

I was looking for something that could help the teens going through the summer. This was just what I needed. Scripture, questions and discussion.

Too elementary for teens.
