Customer Reviews

Teora is a children's books publisher.

My son liked this book. It only took him about 30 minutes to read and place all the stickers with my help -- he is very smart about dinosaurs and does not like to be interrupted once he gets started. It is a small paper book, but what I do like it that you can remove the stickers on to a page of wax paper and then your child could do it again. After one more time though, the edges of the stickers started to curl so I wasn't too sure how many more times he could do that. Over all, for the price and the knowledge, it was a fun purchase for my 4 year old son.
