"Wonderfully lovely, superbly sturdy and creative in charming new ways."•Books4yourkids.com

Amélie Graux graduated from the National School of Decorative Arts in Paris. In addition to illustrating books, she has also designed for youth magazines.

very hard to find a multilingual book. My wife is Mexican and I am French and we want our baby to learn english very soon so this book is a must have !The quality is really good

These books are fantastic for little kids! I have two and plan on getting more. The words are in French, Spanish and English. Each page has something tactile to feel.

Cute book and well put together. It is sturdy so that my daughter can comfortably explore the book without me having to worry about her destroying it.

We love these books - both the "love to eat" and "love to sleep." Unlike a lot of other touch-and-feel books, these have large textured areas with cloth, etc. for the baby to grasp at. They're beautifully bound and the artwork is lovely. Highly recommend.

Really fun book for my baby who loves tactile/sensory books. I also love this because I can read it to my son in Spanish and my husband can read it to him in French.

Nice book but some of the words are in a Spanish other than what I speak. It's cute.

I managed to get my son interested in the texture...

Cute book, great pics. My kids particularly like the sticky page :)
