Miquel Hudin is a writer and photographer who first began to develop a familiarity with wine at Francis Ford Coppola's winery in Napa Valley. He writes extensively about wines from around the world and has acted as a judge at wine competitions and as a regional consultant to sommeliers and wine directors. Àlia Varela Serra is a Catalan journalist who focuses on wine, food, and travel. They both live in Barcelona, Spain.

Beautifully done, well organized, informative for a start. More than just a tour book, the insights to the history and culture with beautiful photos of the region create a story. I highly recommend the book.

My first Vinologue purchase and won me over immediately. This overlooked wine region might merit a mention here or there but this vinologue introduces the reader with history and context and then goes in-depth to the region's wine country. It was an easy to follow guide with detailed contact information that helped navigate reservations and visits. We simply could not have tasted in this region without the guide. It is the definitive guide in the Empordà region.
