Till Death Do Us Bark (43 Old Cemetery Road)

Synopsis

When a dog arrives at Spence Mansion, Seymour is overjoyed. His adoptive parents, Ignatius B. Grumply and Olive C. Spence, are less enthusiastic—especially when Secret, the dog, begins barking all night long. Is it possible Secret just misses his old companion, the late Noah Breth, whose children are fighting like cats and dogs over their father's money? Or does Secret have a secret that, in the end, will make the entire town of Ghastly howl with delight?

Customer Reviews

"As always, the authors keep readers giggling . . . Good, merry fun dances on every page, with bubbling humor for child and adult alike."
—Kirkus Reviews
"The Klise sisters have their formula down to a science: a heavily illustrated, comedic/ghostly mystery revealed in a series of letters and documents by a quirky cast whose pun-filled names are truly groanworthy."

My 10 year old daughter fell in love with book 1 of this series at school. I have purchased the rest of the books in the series for her as it has ignited in her a desire to read. (woo hoo) I just wish there were more in the series. She's on book 5 now.

Teaching this series to my fourth graders had made their interest in reading grow even stronger! Great, creative, and genius! An adorable series for children 8 and up!

Love this series! Great way to teach kids about letter correspondence.

We've read the whole series - and am buying the series so we can keep going back to great phrases..Great book to read with your kids!

My daughter received one of these books through a RIF program at her school. (Reading Is Fundamental) Now, we've purchased every book in the series. I recommend it to families with children this age. The books are very creative, characters have funny names. Very clever!

This book is really funny, actually the whole series is funny my nephews and I love them. Really funny! Awesome

I got this for my granddaughter, she is reading the series and has a complete set now. She is 10.

My daughter (9) loved the book, loves the series
