Field-Trip Fiasco (Mrs. Hartwells Classroom Adventures)

Synopsis

Sarah Jane Hartwell and her class are back. After the stress of her last attempt at taking her class on a field trip (seen in First Year Letters), Mrs. Hartwell has a plan for an upcoming trip to the zoo. A plan that includes a lot of rules. Her students prove that they can line up straight, walk quietly, and take plenty of notes, but everyone soon realizes that this field trip isn't as much fun as they'd hoped. Mrs. Hartwell rethinks her plan and saves the day.

K-Gr 3 Mrs. Hartwell and her second graders are back and are off to the zoo. Hoping to avoid the fiasco of their last trip to a natural history museum, the teacher is super-prepared ultra-prepared for this one. She has done her research and has nine foolproof tips for a great outing. Each and every rule comes in handy. #3 Be prepared for delays. Food works, #6 Bring lots of paper towels and an extra tee shirt, #7 No matter what happens stay calm! with comical results. Kids will love seeing a parrot poop on Eddie (Rule #7 is invoked here). But Mrs. Hartwell also knows when to relax the rules a little (#1 Give students a job to keep them focused and learning and out of trouble!) and let the kids have a good time. Love's illustrations perfectly capture the children's expressions, actions, and abilities. There is plenty to see on each page, and readers will want a close look. Like the previous installments, this one is chock-full of humor and truth. Both teachers and their students will find it easy to relate to the characters and situations. Good pre-class trip or anytime reading. --Catherine Callegari, Gay-Kimball Library, Troy, NH --This text refers to the Hardcover edition.

We read this to our firsties before our field trip and it was a big hit!

The grandkids love this book! Will be ordering more!

These books have such a cute story!

Received in good condition. Thanks!

Mrs. Hartwell is taking her class to the zoo for a fieldtrip. It will be an outing to remember and the illustrations by Judy Love capture all the fun. If you have read the other picture books in this series you'll really like this one. Not only is the art excellent but the storyline is a fun read too. This book would also work nicely with a child who is beginning to read...the text is not overly demanding and it will hold the child's attention.

I love these books!! My name is Mrs. Hartwell and I am a teacher also!! So fun to see my name and am looking forward to reading them with my students!! I think they will love it!!!

I share the 1st book every year with my students who are beginning their preparation as future teachers. Its good to be nervous, because I really want to do it right the first time.
