Customer Reviews

Misled by the item title which says it has an audio CD. I even checked with and it confirmed that it did come with a CD. When it came, it is a book only. Almost useless without the CD.

It's a little above my level of playing at present. I am a 76 year old who took violin lessons as a kid and played intermittently through life. I don't have arthritis so have done well with book 5 and some of book six. I took some lessons from a professional in the Atlanta Symphony and was "resurrected" as an intermediate violinist. It has been said that when ones gets older, either learn a new language or take music lessons. Suzuki books help you learn and have something that sounds good to the ears while doing so - not boring.

i own the entire set of books love them

Classic violin book. Glad we could get it on . Nice to have the CD with it.

Great book

My daughter's been playing violin for a number of years and is now ready for Suzuki Book 6. We had the prior edition but I wanted the revised edition so she would have the most recent information. Great book. My daughter will work through the book with her teacher. This is not a DIY kind of book.

Good print quality and comes with a CD. Good deal.

Great for the Suzuki method.
