Customer Reviews

I can't say enough good to do it justice. This book is the most influential, powerful, thought provoking and restorative book I have ever read beyond the scriptures. For me it was the most liberating ahah that I have ever come across. I have lived a life of abduction, trauma, abuse, and suffered from PTSD due to certain experiences I fell into, and after escaping, decided to study psychology and become a therapist as my lifelong experiences drove me to learn and understand people and their motives for either good or evil towards others. I also studied the law of attraction and have been very drawn to positive psychology. I realize that there are going to be people who have a hard time with a few concepts, who have not had my experiences or learned some things I have already been privileged to find out and read and discover. Many will have a hard time with the idea of manifesting what you think about, or choosing the trials and problems that would happen in ones life. As a religious person, and also LDS I have understood the scriptures and revelations that we came to earth with a plan that both our father in heaven provided for us in order to progress and that we also chose to experience and accept. We came to earth to discover for ourselves our own faith and tenacity to overcome the lowest points so we can uncover the highest potential, creative children of God with the opportunity to become literally as he is. We couldn't have done it without each other, the good or the bad. And how else could so many things have been prophesied if they were not already scripted out and written in advance? The good and the bad? All those near death experience stories I've read and Prophetic discourses and scriptural forshadows all combine in a complete tapestry for me. It has made so much sense that I can suddenly understand and be completely free to forgive everyone who ever hurt me and realize that some of us chose to play a role, and some of us chose to just come and experience but not receive higher potentials. But it's all okay. Faith and agency is what it is all about. No more do people need to remain in a victim mentality, but the complete opposite. Suddenly I am free to be rid of vengeance, anger, grudges, and resentment. I realize that I have the potential of creating anything I want to have or become as long as it benefits others and God's plan for me. I now know my purpose in life and understand many questions I had about myself and the things I was meant to do or drawn to help people with. This book is the bridge that takes my faith and my understanding of the law of attraction and combines them so it all makes sense and I can never look at life the same way again. I am eternally indebted to Carol for enlightening me and giving me my final piece of the puzzle and peace of mind.

I love this book, it is my favorite book of all time. I don't like to dog-ear my books but I found myself doing this to just about every page. It will awaken you to the powers we have to change our lives in extraordinary ways and it's so simple it's mind blowing. I highly recommend this book to everyone. I've had it for about six months and have read it five times already. It picks me up every time I read it. It has actually gotten me back to prayer more deeply then ever before.

I really like this book, it adds to some thing I have been reading about health and healing from a holistic perspective. The author has a positive approach and she is very encouraging. The book addresses thoughts, emotions as well as actions. Some of the ideas expressed did not interest me but there was enough great information in it to make it worth reading.

Love this book. It is easy to read very short chapters so you can really get through it much faster. I tend to want to finish a chapter when i sit down to read; this helps me do that with ease. A lot of insight. I love her references to God and how that helped her. She is non judgmental regarding your personal Spiritual view and she is a breath of fresh air. Thanks Carol Life-changing. Written to be read and re-read, enjoyed, benefited from and read again.... Lather, rinse, repeat... Means more with the further understanding of applying the concepts within it. Contains the keys to taking responsibility for what we have created up til now, and the keys for creating a joyful, positive, loving and purposeful life from now on. Literally raises your vibration. Awakens love and forgiveness for both ourselves and others. I give this my most sincere and highest recommendation. The most life-changing book I have ever read.

I have never been as uplifted from any other book. I can't explain in words all of the things I've learned from this read. It's wonderful. It's one of those books that I keep going back to, so I would say it's more than worth picking up.
