Customer Reviews

The best things about this "guide" is the cover. The contents are no more than a white pages listing of 500 (apparently) well reviewed restaurants. When one opens the book, all one finds is the restaurant name, the cuisine type, the cost of a meal ("inexpensive", "modest", "expensive") address and phone number. It is not indexed, broken out by food type, contains no map of the area nor description of the restaurant's atmosphere/food. With land lines disappearing and the distribution of phone books dwindling, I suppose this book fills a specific niche, but with the internet, I truly see no purpose to the book other than killing trees.
