Customer Reviews

I really liked this book. It was very adventurous. I really liked when I made a stronger friendship with the female creeper. Maribel, age 9.

My son enjoys Minecraft and he enjoys this story as well. He likes the ability to choose what happens next in the story.

I recently introduced my 8 and 9 year old to these and they love them. This one is great since they both LOVE anything Minecraft. Not very long, but fun, and for 99 cents, not a bad buy :)

This has quickly become my 8 yr old son's favorite book. Not only has he read it over a dozen times already but he now brings it to summer school and reads it with all of his friends.

The best of both world's I can't wait to give it to my son when he comes home from Nana's house! I'll let you know if it turns out to be a dud.

My 7 year old loves this book. His words "I love this book so much. It is so good. I really really can't wait to read the next book!" We have reread it probably 10 times now with different endings. It says there is a sequel, but I can't find it. I'm thinking maybe it hasn't been published yet?

Very fun! My kids love choosing their path and it has sparked fun conversation about why they would choose the path they did.

An excellent short story with fun, well-developed characters set in a great choose-your-own-adventure type book
