Customer Reviews

Amish White Christmas 3 book series was amazing. Every detail in their relationships, and family, gives you a wanting to move. I also love the details about each home, and what their significance was, one to another.

My wife anther good book.

There is a reason this is only $.99. It's a fast read, not much to it. The storyline is sweet, but predictable. The writing is simple and choppy, with undeveloped characters. I read the first story and deleted from my device. I'd rather pay more for a real book. Lesson learned.

Enjoyed book but overpriced for size

Not enough to it. None of the three stories had enough meat in them. I like to really get involved with the characters when I read.

This is another great romance by Samantha and I very much enjoyed it. Each story was completely finished and could have ended there but was nicely up dated in the subsequent stories. Highly recommend.

GOOD

Three nice novellas, about three couples in two families. This would have been better written as one book, as Novella 2 and Novella 3 repeated a lot of dialogue from the first novella. I would suggest that the author combine her novellas in the future.
