Great Ideas!

Interesting book but not for small yards.

If you enjoy looking at plenty of landscaping pictures for ideas this is a great book!

This book consists mostly of plans. There are no color photos only drawing renderings. In my opinion, this book was disappointing if you were looking for inspiration and ideas.

It has a lot of designs but to get the details you have to send money. It is surprising that with 225 designs there still isn't one that quite fit our situation. It did give us some ideas.

One of my very favorite books on landscaping design BEFORE you make a mistake!! Great buy--I'd do it again -Yes!

I love this book, I own one and bought this for my daughter since she kept borrowing mine. The ideas are great, the landscape plans are varied and all wonderful. There are even shed, deck and playhouse plans in the back. It's great.

If you want to use their design plans you will have to order them from the book. I wish this point would've been mentioned but as I know a little about plants I like it's more about the design and layout that I was interested in the most. They have nice designs although after about 20 or so, they tend to look the same. They also feature plans for decks, play house/sets, and more. ...
