Be Feel Think Do: A Memoir

Synopsis

At the age of 23, modern-day shaman and inspirational speaker Anne Bä©rubÄ©â€™s life was interrupted by a near fatal car accident and mystical experience. Trapped in the car, unable to breathe, she had a vision that forever realigned her lifeâ€™s trajectory. The following years were marked by chronic pain, emotional turmoil, and malaise, through which her journey of introspection and personal transformation would eventually lead to profound insights around self-healing, inner peace, and soul-realization. In her inspirational memoir, Bä©rubÄ© explores her journey of learning how to prioritize being and feeling in order to experience life richly, fully, and true to her soulâ€™s calling. Bä©rubÄ© opens her heart and her mind to the universeâ€™s wisdom, providing guidance and comfort to those who feel at the precipice of change and awakening.

I happened upon this book in a seemingly random manner. Having never heard of it before the title spoke to me. Be-ingness is something I've felt called to dedicate more time to in my life. My kindle copy is now highlighted almost throughout. Loved the personal stories and the poetic encouragement to live life soulfully.

This is a very moving, inspirational book by an extraordinary woman. She is passionate about using her experiences to help others on their path of self discovery and life fulfillment.
