Customer Reviews

It's a well written book, consisted, and applicable to a growth oriented individual. Highly recommended. If your looking for weekend read and a book with a punch, then give this a try.

I'm at the manager level; 7 years into my career. This is an excellent book for a businessperson of any level.

This book gives a lot of indicates for any kind of business person to work much better and get their own goal much more effectively. Don't miss it.

Great book

Good books and give the others knowledge.

very good book!

Great read!!!

I actually found this to be a pretty good book, but it is not so much about problem solving, more about principles behind being a good consultant in the general sense. How to improve yourself, how to work with your team etc. It is also quite brief and easy to read - so provides you with a good checklist of activities
