Very good cook book , lot of down home recipes , simple and Good

After a recent visit to the Dillard House for lunch, we fell in love. This cookbook details the simple, yet wholesome recipes which regularly appear on the restaurant's menus. We have tried several with great success. In addition to the recipes, the local history is enthralling.

I bought this cookbook at the Dillard House in GA and loved it so I bought another one for a friend. It is easy to use and most things you already have on hand.
