Time Out Toronto (Time Out Guides)

Synopsis

This third edition of Time Out Toronto shows travelers the best the city has to offer. Expert local writers give the lowdown on its world-class eating, drinking, and shopping, and delve into its thriving arts scene, with tips on scoring tickets and spotting faces at the prestigious International Film Festival. Insider reviews cover Toronto's top-notch restaurants, which serve up nearly 200 types of cuisine, while listings highlight the best museums, shopping, and hotels, including the newest boutique hotels. With color photos and maps throughout, Time Out Toronto also details day-trips to wineries, the woodsy north country, and Niagara Falls, and even explores how the city has become a model of ethnic diversity admired around the world.

Customer Reviews

"Its listings seem to miss nothing. Not a show goes on, not a restaurant opens, a new dish served, a gallery boast a new star, without it seeming to be noticed by Time Out." The Toronto Star

Toronto native Paul French has contributed to all Time Out Toronto guides. He writes about the city and other destinations for newspapers and magazines around the world
