Customer Reviews

Oh, what a great ending to this wonderful trilogy. Some good twists and turns, but the good guys won in the end!

The story consumed my time. I have a difficult time putting the book down and I greedily oblige. I have devoured the three books in a record time. I had enjoyed the fast pacing of the books, not a second dull or boring. I love them

In this final book in the Fianna Trilogy, the dynamic characters weave a suspenseful and wonderful tale based on Irish mythology. I recommend this trilogy for all fantasy readers!

The trilogy was interesting.

I read the trilogy over a two day period. The plot is so intricately crafted, mythical characters intertwined with the lives of Victorian heroes and the impossible choices to be made. I would recommend these books to anyone who values an excellent love story.

Interesting read.

Best trilogy I've ever read. Couldn't put it down!! Captivating from the first chapter. Loved the characters, didn't want it to end.

I couldn't put this book down! The whole series was so fascinating and the characters were so well written --if you enjoy action and romance then you need to read this book!
