Customer Reviews

While the book is older than some, and may be in some regards a bit out of date (hint to publisher - bring out a revised version), for instance some of the restaurants no longer exist, I found this to be the best book (and I brought many with me). The recommendations are solid, the highlighted points of interest are the most consistent (and often off-beat) and the essays and comments are the best (this is the only book for instance that explained why bamboo is used as scaffolding),
