Chicago Impressions

Synopsis

Gerald D. Tang has logged in thousands of miles of travel to places such as Africa, and China, yet Chicago remains both his home and a favorite photographic subject. In Chicago Impressions, a surprisingly affordable book of excellent color photography, Tang shares 92 of his finest images of the Windy City, from beloved Buckingham Fountain to the United Center, home of the Chicago Bulls. He turns his camera on the famed sites, such as the Magnificent Mile and the Lincoln Park Zoo, as well as gems only locals know, such as historic neighborhoods, architectural details on downtown high-rises, and old watering holes such as the 1881 Schaller's Pump restaurant. Indeed, Chicago Impressions is the perfect memento of a trip to one of America's finest cities. And who better to capture its beauty than a Chicagoan!

Gerald D. Tang has captured over 100,000 nature, wildlife, and travel photos, concentrating on Chicago but ranging as far as Africa, China, Peru, the Galapagos Islands, Costa Rica, and other parts of North America. His work has appeared in numerous books, exhibits, calendars, and magazines, from National Geographic to Real Simple.

An impressive compilation of full color photographs taken by Gerald D. Tang, "Chicago: Impressions" is a visual tour-de-force of Chicago's landmarks, street scenes, buildings, and architectural details. Each individual photograph has a succinct caption identifying the image taken. A browser's delight, "Chicago: Impressions" also demonstrates an artist's eye through the medium of the camera lens. Perfect for the armchair traveler, "Chicago: Impressions" is the perfect visual souvenir and will prove to be of immense interest to anyone who has ever lived or visited the Windy City, a truly iconic metropolis of the American Midwest.

Great book, with great pictures. You get a real feel for the Chicago area after paging through the many terrific images!
